

Schedules by Panelist

Jack McDevitt

Friday:

Warwick, 4pm - Jack McDevitt - a Reading by the Author

Join our Guest of Honor as he reads from an Alex Benedict mystery Echo due out in November and a new story "The Cassandra Project" in which we discover Apollo 11 was not the first landing on the moon.

Warwick, 6pm - The Aspiring Writers Panel

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Bill Fawcett, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt,

So you want to be a writer? There are twists and turns in every path to a successful writing career, and our panelists can give you directions on how to get there.

Saturday:

Warwick, 10 am - Get Ready, Get Set...: How to Start a Story

Panelists: P.N. Elrod (M), Michelle Muenzler, T.M. Hunter, Rachel Caine, Sue Sinor, Jack McDevitt

The best stories usually have one thing in common – a catchy beginning. If you can't capture the attention of a reader who is skimming through the bookstore, you'll never sell books. Our experts relate their tales, and how you can get that story out...and grab attention in the process.

Canterbury, 11am - Reality Holes: Errors in Research

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Frances May, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt, Teresa Patterson

Our experts discuss research, and what is often forgotten in writing – that making things believable usually requires a basis in fact. Anyone can make up words, but only you could attach meanings to them.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 2pm – Jack McDevitt

Warwick, 3pm - Q&A with Jack McDevitt

Panelists: Jack McDevitt

Ever wonder what Jack McDevitt's favorite planet is? Curious what he is writing about now? Wonder how Priscilla Hutchins got her name? Here's where you can go to the source himself.

Sunday:

Warwick, 10am - Lucifer's Hammer: Asteroid collisions in Literature

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Jack McDevitt, Paul Abell, David Gray

Several fantastic novels have been written about near-earth object collisions and the results that happen. From the original "Lucifer's Hammer" to our Guest of Honor's "Moonfall", the Earth is surprisingly vulnerable to death from outer space. Our guests talk about the science behind these events, and how to write them.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 11am – Jack McDevitt

Churchill, 1pm - Publishing 201: Publishing Novels

Panelists: Lou Antonelli (M), Ciara Gold, Richard Weber, Selina Rosen, Jack McDevitt

Putting together a novel is an exhausting business, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your novel read, who to go to, and what to say. And watch out for rogue contracts!

Elizabeth Moon

Friday:

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 4pm – Elizabeth Moon

Warwick, 5pm - Fantastic Realms: Trends in Fantasy

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Elizabeth Moon, Teresa Patterson, A. Lee Martinez

From things that fly and breathe fire to the denizens of the deep mines, fantasy has always been the place for high adventure. Our experts discuss where fantasy is today, and where it will be in the future.

Warwick, 6pm - The Aspiring Writers Panel

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Bill Fawcett, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt,
So you want to be a writer? There are twists and turns in every path to a successful writing career, and our panelists can give you directions on how to get there.

Saturday:

Canterbury, 11am - Reality Holes: Errors in Research

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Frances May, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt, Teresa Patterson
Our experts discuss research, and what is often forgotten in writing – that making things believable usually requires a basis in fact. Anyone can make up words, but only you could attach meanings to them.

Warwick, 4pm - World-Building 101: Weather Control

Panelists: Amy Sisson (M), Lillian Stewart Carl, Elizabeth Moon, Darlene Bolesny, Rachel Caine
It was a dark and stormy night...some of the best books (and worst!) use that line to open up the reader's mind into a new and fascinating world. Our panelists examine the use of weather in stories, and how to use them to help or hurt the characters.

Warwick, 5pm - Q&A with Elizabeth Moon

Panelists: Elizabeth Moon

Ever wonder what Elizabeth Moon's favorite animal is? Curious what she is writing about now? Wonder how the Serrano family got their name? Here's where you can go to the source herself.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 6pm – Elizabeth Moon

Sunday:

Warwick, 12pm - Writers to Keep An Eye On

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Elizabeth Moon, A. Lee Martinez, Aaron Allston

An annual discussion, our panelists have a lively discussion on who are the upwardly mobile in writing. Who has a good handle on writing? Who is a hack and won't stick around long? Expect opinions to fly hot and heavy – and no referees.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 1pm – Elizabeth Moon

Warwick, 3pm - Elizabeth Moon – a Reading by the Author

Join our Guest of Honor as she reads from her own works. What will she be reading? Well, that's a secret you'll have to show up to find out.

Vincent Villafranca

Friday:

Manchester, 6pm - The Aspiring Artists Panel

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), Vincent Villafranca, R. Cat Conrad, Joy Marie Ledet

So you want to be an artist? There are twists and turns in every path to a successful art career, and our panelists can give you directions on how to get there.

Saturday:

Warwick, 11am - The Art and Sculpture of Vincent Villafranca – Slideshow and Q&A (2 hours)

Panelists: Vincent Villafranca

A slideshow and video presentation of our Artist Guest of Honor's work and methods. And they'll be plenty of time for you to ask those questions you've always been curious about.

Sunday:

Canterbury, 11am - Fan Art 101

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), Vincent Villafranca, R. Cat Conrad, Brad Foster

Our panelists answer the ever-present question of “What is Fan Art?”. When does it crossover to a career? Possibly the answer to “Why is Fan Art?” as well, but that might take more time than they have.

Paul Abell

Friday:

Canterbury, 5pm – Planets are for Sissies!

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Paul Abell, David Gray, Scott Padget

The solar system is a big place, why limit ourselves to living on planets? Our panelists consider other alternatives. Hosted by the National Space Society of North Texas.

Saturday:

Canterbury, 10 am – Exploring and Colonizing Mars

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Paul Abell, and members of the Dallas Mars Society (Kurt Chankaya, Derek Andreas, April Andreas)

It won't be this decade, or probably even the next, but it will happen. We will colonize Mars. What will it be like? What challenges will the new Martians face? Our panelists will discuss our next home in space. Hosted by the National Space Society of North Texas and the Dallas Mars Society.

Sunday:

Warwick, 10am - Lucifer's Hammer: Asteroid collisions in Literature

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Jack McDevitt, Paul Abell, David Gray

Several fantastic novels have been written about near-earth object collisions and the results that happen. From the original “Lucifer's Hammer” to our Guest of Honor's “Moonfall”, the Earth is surprisingly vulnerable to death from outer space. Our guests talk about the science behind these events, and how to write them.

Aaron Allston

Friday:

Warwick, 5pm - Fantastic Realms: Trends in Fantasy

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Elizabeth Moon, Teresa Patterson, A. Lee Martinez

From things that fly and breathe fire to the denizens of the deep mines, fantasy has always been the place for high adventure. Our experts discuss where fantasy is today, and where it will be in the future.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 6pm – Aaron Allston, Paul Black

Saturday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 11am – Aaron Allston, Kerry M. Tolan

Canterbury, 3pm - E.T. Phone Home: Aliens and You

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Chris Donahue, Bill Crider, Dusty Rainbolt, Kerry Tolan

A particular pitfall of the Science Fiction genre is the humanoid alien that thinks and talks like humans. How does one make an alien believable? What kind of society would a non-humanoid alien have, if any? Our panelists discuss these topics and more.

Warwick, 6pm - Science versus Fantasy: Are Nano-fireballs in the future?

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Nina Romberg, Melanie Fletcher, Mark Finn

With the advent of nano-technology and miniaturization of computers, science “fiction” is rapidly becoming mundane truth. Where is the role of magic in all of this – or can magic simply be science that is unexplained? Our panelists examine the dividing line which may or may not exist any more.

Sunday:

Warwick, 11am - Lascannons of Doom: Creating Weapons in Sci-fi/Fantasy
Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Glenn Sixbury, Melanie Fletcher, Frances May, Kerry Tolan
Movies create more and more unbelievable weapons due to comic books and bad science. These Weapons of Mass Destruction™ tend to raise eyebrows and ruin more novels than any other literary device. Our experts examine unbelievable weapons that make people's eyes glaze...and how to avoid this.

Warwick, 12pm - Writers to Keep An Eye On
Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Elizabeth Moon, A. Lee Martinez, Aaron Allston
An annual discussion, our panelists have a lively discussion on who are the upwardly mobile in writing. Who has a good handle on writing? Who is a hack and won't stick around long? Expect opinions to fly hot and heavy – and no referees.

David Lee Anderson

Friday:

Manchester, 6pm - The Aspiring Artists Panel

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), Vincent Villafranca, R. Cat Conrad, Joy Marie Ledet
So you want to be an artist? There are twists and turns in every path to a successful art career, and our panelists can give you directions on how to get there.

Canterbury, 9pm – Musical Performance by the Starcruisers
Musical entertainment on Friday evening, starring Steve Starcher, Gabriel Barham, Joe Gusman, and David Lee Anderson.

Saturday:

Churchill, 10am - Art and Urban Fantasy: How to Sell a Book

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), David Cherry, Robert Stikmanz

The nightmare of any publisher is to get a piece of art that sells books. What the poor artist doesn't know about the novel may just doom a project before it starts... This year our panelists talk about some of the typical traps artists face in doing art for Urban Fantasy projects.

Sunday:

Canterbury, 11am - Fan Art 101

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), Vincent Villafranca, R. Cat Conrad, Brad Foster

Our panelists answer the ever-present question of "What is Fan Art?". When does it crossover to a career? Possibly the answer to "Why is Fan Art?" as well, but that might take more time than they have.

C Dean Andersson

Friday:

Saturday:

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 12pm – Darlene Bolesny, C. Dean Andersson, Lillian Stewart Carl, Nina Romberg

Manchester, 1pm - Heroic Destinies

Panelists: Darlene Bolesny (M), Rhonda Eudaly, C. Dean Andersson, Angeline Hawkes, Paul Black
A hero always has a destiny, or so it is written. But perhaps a destiny denied can be more interesting than a destiny fulfilled...our panelists talk about Destiny in literature, and how to make it not so obvious.

Sunday:

Lou Antonelli

Friday:

Saturday:

Canterbury, 12pm - Tropes and How to Avoid Them.

Panelists: Bill Fawcett (M), Patrice Sarath, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Lou Antonelli
Ever groan while reading a story? Does seeing a ghost telling the hero he has a quest make you retch? The ever-present cliché will pop up when you least expect it, and ruin all the dramatic potential your story has. Our experts go over some popular ones...and show you how to avoid them.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 1pm – Lee Martindale, Lou Antonelli , Carole Nelson Douglas

Sunday:

Churchill, 11am - Escape from the Slush Pile

Panelists: Lou Antonelli(M), Ciara Gold, Michael Finn, Selina Rosen

As the number of hopeful writers increase, the number of submissions increase. Piles upon piles of stories overwhelm every publisher and editor, and they have to make decisions on what makes it...and what is tossed in the slush pile. Our esteemed panelists discuss how to avoid being buried in the pile, and the mistakes to look out for.

Churchill, 1pm - Publishing 201: Publishing Novels

Panelists: Lou Antonelli (M), Ciara Gold, Richard Weber, Selina Rosen, Jack McDevitt

Putting together a novel is an exhausting business, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your novel read, who to go to, and what to say. And watch out for rogue contracts!

Canterbury, 2pm - Self-editing Errors

Panelists: Lou Antonelli (M), Richard Weber, Julia Mandala

Last year our panelists discussed ways of catching those pesky errors. Now they tell you how to do it again, but with corrective ink.

Paul Black

Friday:

Manchester, 4pm - The Novel vs. The Short Story

Panelists: Patrice Sarath (M), Kerry Tolan, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Paul Black

If you are a promising writer, you won't want to miss this: our panelists discuss the differences between novels and short stories – and what to choose for a particular story idea.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 6pm – Aaron Allston, Paul Black

Saturday:

Manchester, 1pm - Heroic Destinies

Panelists: Darlene Bolesny (M), Rhonda Eudaly, C. Dean Andersson, Angeline Hawkes, Paul Black
A hero always has a destiny, or so it is written. But perhaps a destiny denied can be more interesting than a destiny fulfilled...our panelists talk about Destiny in literature, and how to make it not so obvious.

Sunday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 12pm – Robert Stikmanz, Paul Black

Warwick, 2pm - The Case of the Mixed-up Genre

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), A. Lee Martinez, Crystalwizard, Paul Black

With so many genres of writing, it is easy to get locked into one and only one. But there are many cases where breaking into a new style can help break you out of that rut – and change that novel forever! Our panelists tell you how, why, and what works best.

Canterbury, 3pm - Indie Publishing 101

Panelists: Ciara Gold (M), Crystalwizard, Thomas Knowles, Paul Black
Getting that novel out there is hard enough if you try to butt heads with the big boys. Are independent publishers the answer? Our panelists try to answer this...and who to talk to if you want to explore options.

Darlene D. Bolesny

Friday:

Saturday:

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 12pm – Darlene Bolesny, C. Dean Andersson, Lillian Stewart Carl, Nina Romberg

Manchester, 1pm - Heroic Destinies

Panelists: Darlene Bolesny (M), Rhonda Eudaly, C. Dean Andersson, Angeline Hawkes, Paul Black
A hero always has a destiny, or so it is written. But perhaps a destiny denied can be more interesting than a destiny fulfilled...our panelists talk about Destiny in literature, and how to make it not so obvious.

Saturday:

Warwick, 4pm - World-Building 101: Weather Control

Panelists: Amy Sisson (M), Lillian Stewart Carl, Elizabeth Moon, Darlene Bolesny, Rachel Caine
It was a dark and stormy night...some of the best books (and worst!) use that line to open up the reader's mind into a new and fascinating world. Our panelists examine the use of weather in stories, and how to use them to help or hurt the characters.

Sunday:

Rachel Caine

Friday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 6pm – Rachel Caine

Saturday:

Warwick, 10 am - Get Ready, Get Set...: How to Start a Story

Panelists: P.N. Elrod (M), Michelle Muenzler, T.M. Hunter, Rachel Caine, Sue Sinor, Jack McDevitt
The best stories usually have one thing in common – a catchy beginning. If you can't capture the attention of a reader who is skimming through the bookstore, you'll never sell books. Our experts relate their tales, and how you can get that story out...and grab attention in the process.

Canterbury, 1pm - The Urban Fantastic

Panelists: Shanna Swendson (M), Brad Sinor, Jaye Wells, Rachel Caine
Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 3pm – Rachel Caine, Brad Sinor, Sue Sinor, Angeline Hawkes

Warwick, 4pm - World-Building 101: Weather Control

Panelists: Amy Sisson (M), Lillian Stewart Carl, Elizabeth Moon, Darlene Bolesny, Rachel Caine
It was a dark and stormy night...some of the best books (and worst!) use that line to open up the reader's mind into a new and fascinating world. Our panelists examine the use of weather in stories, and how to use them to help or hurt the characters.

Sunday:

Manchester, 12pm - Supernatural Romance and You (in the 21st Century!)

Panelists: Julia Mandala (M), Rachel Caine, Rie Sheridan Rose

This is one of the hottest genres around...sometimes literally! Come hear our experts regale you with juicy tales of Vampires, Werewolves and Witches, Oh My!

Canterbury, 1pm - Scream Queens – Trends in Modern Horror

Panelists: Chris Donahue (M), Rachel Caine, Crystalwizard

Horror writing in the modern world is always tricky – between the science fiction genre and the urban fantasy genre, it is easy to get lost with what is scary. Our experts discuss how to write and still straddle the line of true horror.

Lillian Stewart Carl

Friday:

Saturday:

Manchester, 10am - Self-Help for Selling Yourself

Panelists: Bill Fawcett (M), Lillian Stewart Carl, Thomas Knowles

In this modern world, there are many mediums for selling your work, whether via the Internet or printed media. Our editors and publishers give you advice on where to go and what they look for when they read your work.

Manchester, 11am - Mystery Writing and You: Crime on the Road

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), A. Lee Martinez, Lillian Stewart Carl, Carole Nelson Douglas, Bill Crider

How does one create a crime? What is Noir? What era or genre is best for writing a mystery? Our experienced panelists give their advice on how to take a mystery on the road, and how to create a whodunit for the ages.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 12pm – Darlene Bolesny, C. Dean Andersson, Lillian Stewart Carl, Nina Romberg

Warwick, 4pm - World-Building 101: Weather Control

Panelists: Amy Sisson (M), Lillian Stewart Carl, Elizabeth Moon, Darlene Bolesny, Rachel Caine

It was a dark and stormy night...some of the best books (and worst!) use that line to open up the reader's mind into a new and fascinating world. Our panelists examine the use of weather in stories, and how to use them to help or hurt the characters.

Sunday:

David Cherry

Friday:

Saturday:

Churchill, 10am - Art and Urban Fantasy: How to Sell a Book

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), David Cherry, Robert Stikmanz

The nightmare of any publisher is to get a piece of art that sells books. What the poor artist doesn't know about the novel may just doom a project before it starts... This year our panelists talk about some of the typical traps artists face in doing art for Urban Fantasy projects.

Warwick, 1pm - 3Dmax, Photoshop, and You! Hosted by David Cherry

Panelists: David Cherry

Thanks to computers and fantastic software, there are many ways of creating art. Using two of the more popular software utilities out there, David Cherry gives us a basic class in how to utilize 3DMax and Photoshop in simple steps.

Sunday:

Crystalwizard

Friday:

Manchester, 5pm - Interstellar Archaeology: Initial Findings

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Crystalwizard, Scott Cupp, Michael Finn, Julia Mandala

The first of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin and our esteemed panelists in turn tell us what the artifacts are. Light hearted fun, and bring ear plugs!

Saturday:

Manchester, 4pm - The Urban Fantastic, Take 2

Panelists: Nina Romberg (M), Crystalwizard, P.N. Elrod, Thomas Knowles, Carole Nelson Douglas

Here's our second look at this popular genre. Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Sunday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 11am – Crystalwizard, Jaye Wells

Churchill, 12pm - Publishing 101: Publishing Short Stories

Panelists: Thomas Knowles(M), Crystalwizard, Ciara Gold, Sue Sinor

Putting together a gem is always a pleasure, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your story read, who to go to, and what to say.

Canterbury, 1pm - Scream Queens – Trends in Modern Horror

Panelists: Chris Donahue (M), Rachel Caine, Crystalwizard

Horror writing in the modern world is always tricky – between the science fiction genre and the urban fantasy genre, it is easy to get lost with what is scary. Our experts discuss how to write and still straddle the line of true horror.

Warwick, 2pm - The Case of the Mixed-up Genre

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), A. Lee Martinez, Crystalwizard, Paul Black

With so many genres of writing, it is easy to get locked into one and only one. But there are many cases where breaking into a new style can help break you out of that rut – and change that novel forever! Our panelists tell you how, why, and what works best.

Canterbury, 3pm - Indie Publishing 101

Panelists: Ciara Gold (M), Crystalwizard, Thomas Knowles, Paul Black

Getting that novel out there is hard enough if you try to butt heads with the big boys. Are independent publishers the answer? Our panelists try to answer this...and who to talk to if you want to explore options.

R. Cat Conrad

Friday:

Manchester, 6pm - The Aspiring Artists Panel

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), Vincent Villafranca, R. Cat Conrad, Joy Marie Ledet

So you want to be an artist? There are twists and turns in every path to a successful art career, and our panelists can give you directions on how to get there.

Saturday:

Sunday:

Canterbury, 11am - Fan Art 101

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), Vincent Villafranca, R. Cat Conrad, Brad Foster

Our panelists answer the ever-present question of "What is Fan Art?". When does it crossover to a career? Possibly the answer to "Why is Fan Art?" as well, but that might take more time than they have.

Bill Crider

Friday:

Saturday:

Manchester, 11am - Mystery Writing and You: Crime on the Road

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), A. Lee Martinez, Lillian Stewart Carl, Carole Nelson Douglas, Bill Crider

How does one create a crime? What is Noir? What era or genre is best for writing a mystery? Our experienced panelists give their advice on how to take a mystery on the road, and how to create a whodunit for the ages.

Canterbury, 3pm - E.T. Phone Home: Aliens and You

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Chris Donahue, Bill Crider, Dusty Rainbolt, Kerry Tolan

A particular pitfall of the Science Fiction genre is the humanoid alien that thinks and talks like humans. How does one make an alien believable? What kind of society would a non-humanoid alien have, if any? Our panelists discuss these topics and more.

Sunday:

Scott Cupp

Friday:

Canterbury, 4pm - The Modern Western and You: Desperados in the 21st Century

Panelists: Scott Cupp (M), Thomas Knowles, Mel White

Writing a Western in the modern world is a tricky proposition. In this panel our esteemed experts discuss the world of the Western and how to write it in a more modern setting...or how to write about old-style Westerns in this modern world!

Manchester, 5pm - Interstellar Archaeology: Initial Findings

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Crystalwizard, Scott Cupp, Michael Finn, Julia Mandala

The first of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin and our esteemed panelists in turn tell us what the artifacts are. Light hearted fun, and bring ear plugs!

Saturday:

Sunday:

Ciara Gold

Friday:

Canterbury, 6pm - How I Learned to Love the Internet: Media and Writing

Panelists: Michael Finn (M), Kerry Tolan, Adrian Simmons, Ciara Gold, Shanna Swendson

It seems nowadays that any book can be turned into a movie. In turn, many a hopeful writer just dream of having their 10 minutes of fame on the internet...and having that propel them into stardom. Our experts tell of how this is done, why it is done, and where it should be done...and just maybe IF it should be done.

Saturday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 3pm – Ciara Gold, Selina Rosen

Sunday:

Churchill, 11am - Escape from the Slush Pile

Panelists: Lou Antonelli(M), Ciara Gold, Michael Finn, Selina Rosen

As the number of hopeful writers increase, the number of submissions increase. Piles upon piles of stories overwhelm every publisher and editor, and they have to make decisions on what makes it...and what is tossed in the slush pile. Our esteemed panelists discuss how to avoid being buried in the pile, and the mistakes to look out for.

Churchill, 12pm - Publishing 101: Publishing Short Stories

Panelists: Thomas Knowles(M), Crystalwizard, Ciara Gold, Sue Sinor

Putting together a gem is always a pleasure, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your story read, who to go to, and what to say.

Churchill, 1pm - Publishing 201: Publishing Novels

Panelists: Lou Antonelli (M), Ciara Gold, Richard Weber, Selina Rosen, Jack McDevitt

Putting together a novel is an exhausting business, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your novel read, who to go to, and what to say. And watch out for rogue contracts!

Canterbury, 3pm - Indie Publishing 101

Panelists: Ciara Gold (M), Crystalwizard, Thomas Knowles, Paul Black

Getting that novel out there is hard enough if you try to butt heads with the big boys. Are independent publishers the answer? Our panelists try to answer this...and who to talk to if you want to explore options.

Peggy Dee-Haslbauer

Friday:

Saturday:

Churchill, 4pm - Costuming 101 - Leather Mask Making with Peggy Dee

A popular panel from last year, Peggy Dee-Haslbauer is back to show it again! This demo covers an in-depth look at the techniques for producing professional quality masks that range from very simple to very elaborate; using a wet leather technique. This method involves cutting and soaking the leather until it reaches a very pliable consistency that can be sculpted into incredibly creative designs of every genre. This will be followed by drying, painting, and decorating techniques that will produce a beautiful, wearable object of art that can be both worn and displayed.

Sunday:

Chris Donahue

Friday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 5pm – Chris Donahue, Linda Donahue

Saturday:

Canterbury, 3pm - E.T. Phone Home: Aliens and You

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Chris Donahue, Bill Crider, Dusty Rainbolt, Kerry Tolan

A particular pitfall of the Science Fiction genre is the humanoid alien that thinks and talks like humans. How does one make an alien believable? What kind of society would a non-humanoid alien have, if any? Our panelists discuss these topics and more.

Sunday:

Manchester, 11am - Anthologies and You: They're Coming!

Panelists: Teresa Patterson(M), Chris Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly, Kevin Hosey

Last year, this humble programming officer discovered that creating Anthologies and Collections was not as easy as he thought it was...and the reasons for doing so was nothing like he thought, either! Come discover the true reasons for banding together, as true experts illumine the trials and tribulations they faced.

Canterbury, 1pm - Scream Queens – Trends in Modern Horror

Panelists: Chris Donahue (M), Rachel Caine, Crystalwizard

Horror writing in the modern world is always tricky – between the science fiction genre and the urban fantasy genre, it is easy to get lost with what is scary. Our experts discuss how to write and still straddle the line of true horror.

Linda Donahue

Friday:

Manchester, 4pm - The Novel vs. The Short Story

Panelists: Patrice Sarath (M), Kerry Tolan, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Paul Black

If you are a promising writer, you won't want to miss this: our panelists discuss the differences between novels and short stories – and what to choose for a particular story idea.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 5pm – Chris Donahue, Linda Donahue

Saturday:

Canterbury, 12pm - Tropes and How to Avoid Them.

Panelists: Bill Fawcett (M), Patrice Sarath, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Lou Antonelli

Ever groan while reading a story? Does seeing a ghost telling the hero he has a quest make you retch? The ever-present cliché will pop up when you least expect it, and ruin all the dramatic potential your story has. Our experts go over some popular ones...and show you how to avoid them.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 5pm – Julia Mandala, Linda L. Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly, Dusty Rainbolt

Manchester, 6pm - The Four Redheads: Apocalypse Now!

Panelists: Julia Mandala, Linda L. Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly and Dusty Rainbolt

The Four Redheads get together IN CHARACTER to promote their latest and greatest. Just to tease: "They have a stunning realization: once the Apocalypse is finished, there'll be no need for horsemen and they'll be free of the jobs they loathe. Now highly motivated, and armed with the prophecies of Antoinette of Arc (Joan's smarter sister, who never told anyone she had visions of the Apocalypse), the Redheads carry out their secret plan to bring on the End Times. And, since no one takes them seriously, they just might succeed!"

Sunday:

Warwick, 1pm - Alternate History and You: Trends in Alternate Universes

Panelists: Linda Donahue (M), Melanie Fletcher

Popularized by Harry Turtledove, Eric Flint and many others, the alternate history genre has risen to new heights. Our experts discuss ways and means for writing it...and who is on the cutting edge in 2010.

Churchill, 2pm - Mythology and You: Researching Asgard

Panelists: Teresa Patterson (M), Frances May, Linda Donahue

Even the tried and true mythological traditions have their uses in creating stories. However, it can be tricky finding the truth behind the myth at times. Our experts discuss where to look when researching mythology, and how to avoid that pesky Loki.

Carole Nelson Douglas

Friday:

Saturday:

Manchester, 11am - Mystery Writing and You: Crime on the Road

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), A. Lee Martinez, Lillian Stewart Carl, Carole Nelson Douglas, Bill Crider

How does one create a crime? What is Noir? What era or genre is best for writing a mystery? Our experienced panelists give their advice on how to take a mystery on the road, and how to create a whodunit for the ages.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 1pm – Lee Martindale, Lou Antonelli , Carole Nelson Douglas

Manchester, 4pm - The Urban Fantastic, Take 2

Panelists: Nina Romberg (M), Crystalwizard, P.N. Elrod, Thomas Knowles, Carole Nelson Douglas
Here's our second look at this popular genre. Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Sunday:

P.N. Elrod

Friday:

Saturday:

Warwick, 10 am - Get Ready, Get Set...: How to Start a Story

Panelists: P.N. Elrod (M), Michelle Muenzler, T.M. Hunter, Rachel Caine, Sue Sinor, Jack McDevitt
The best stories usually have one thing in common – a catchy beginning. If you can't capture the attention of a reader who is skimming through the bookstore, you'll never sell books. Our experts relate their tales, and how you can get that story out...and grab attention in the process.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 1pm – P.N. Elrod, Sue Sinor

Manchester, 4pm - The Urban Fantastic, Take 2

Panelists: Nina Romberg (M), Crystalwizard, P.N. Elrod, Thomas Knowles, Carole Nelson Douglas
Here's our second look at this popular genre. Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Sunday:

Rhonda Eudaly

Friday:

Saturday:

Manchester, 1pm - Heroic Destinies

Panelists: Darlene Bolesny (M), Rhonda Eudaly, C. Dean Andersson, Angeline Hawkes, Paul Black
A hero always has a destiny, or so it is written. But perhaps a destiny denied can be more interesting than a destiny fulfilled...our panelists talk about Destiny in literature, and how to make it not so obvious.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 2pm – Rhonda Eudaly, Rie Sheridan Rose

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 5pm – Julia Mandala, Linda L. Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly, Dusty Rainbolt

Manchester, 6pm - The Four Redheads: Apocalypse Now!

Panelists: Julia Mandala, Linda L. Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly and Dusty Rainbolt

The Four Redheads get together IN CHARACTER to promote their latest and greatest. Just to tease: "They have a stunning realization: once the Apocalypse is finished, there'll be no need for horsemen and they'll be free of the jobs they loathe. Now highly motivated, and armed with the prophecies of Antoinette of Arc (Joan's smarter sister, who never told anyone she had visions of the Apocalypse), the Redheads carry out their secret plan to bring on the End Times. And, since no one takes them seriously, they just might succeed!”

Sunday:

Manchester, 11am - Anthologies and You: They're Coming!

Panelists: Teresa Patterson(M), Chris Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly, Kevin Hosey

Last year, this humble programming officer discovered that creating Anthologies and Collections was not as easy as he thought it was...and the reasons for doing so was nothing like he thought, either! Come discover the true reasons for banding together, as true experts illumine the trials and tribulations they faced.

Bill Fawcett

Friday:

Warwick, 6pm - The Aspiring Writers Panel

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Bill Fawcett, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt,

So you want to be a writer? There are twists and turns in every path to a successful writing career, and our panelists can give you directions on how to get there.

Saturday:

Manchester, 10am - Self-Help for Selling Yourself

Panelists: Bill Fawcett (M), Lillian Stewart Carl, Thomas Knowles

In this modern world, there are many mediums for selling your work, whether via the Internet or printed media. Our editors and publishers give you advice on where to go and what they look for when they read your work.

Canterbury, 12pm - Tropes and How to Avoid Them.

Panelists: Bill Fawcett (M), Patrice Sarath, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Lou Antonelli

Ever groan while reading a story? Does seeing a ghost telling the hero he has a quest make you retch? The ever-present cliché will pop up when you least expect it, and ruin all the dramatic potential your story has. Our experts go over some popular ones...and show you how to avoid them.

Sunday:

Michael Ashleigh Finn

Friday:

Manchester, 5pm - Interstellar Archaeology: Initial Findings

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Crystalwizard, Scott Cupp, Michael Finn, Julia Mandala

The first of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin and our esteemed panelists in turn tell us what the artifacts are. Light hearted fun, and bring ear plugs!

Canterbury, 6pm - How I Learned to Love the Internet: Media and Writing

Panelists: Michael Finn (M), Kerry Tolan, Adrian Simmons, Ciara Gold, Shanna Swendson

It seems nowadays that any book can be turned into a movie. In turn, many a hopeful writer just dream of having their 10 minutes of fame on the internet...and having that propel them into stardom. Our experts tell of how this is done, why it is done, and where it should be done...and just maybe IF it should be done.

Warwick, 9pm - Talking During the Movies! – Friday Night Double Feature (Avatar Edition!)

Panelists: Michael Finn, Selina Rosen, and others!

Two schlock masterpieces receive a thorough MST3K'ing by con guests and staff.

Saturday:

Warwick, 6pm - Science versus Fantasy: Are Nano-fireballs in the future?

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Nina Romberg, Melanie Fletcher, Mark Finn

With the advent of nano-technology and miniaturization of computers, science “fiction” is rapidly becoming mundane truth. Where is the role of magic in all of this – or can magic simply be science that is unexplained? Our panelists examine the dividing line which may or may not exist any more.

Sunday:

Churchill, 11am - Escape from the Slush Pile

Panelists: Lou Antonelli(M), Ciara Gold, Michael Finn, Selina Rosen

As the number of hopeful writers increase, the number of submissions increase. Piles upon piles of stories overwhelm every publisher and editor, and they have to make decisions on what makes it...and what is tossed in the slush pile. Our esteemed panelists discuss how to avoid being buried in the pile, and the mistakes to look out for.

Melanie Miller Fletcher

Friday:

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 5pm – Patrice Sarath, Melanie Fletcher

Saturday:

Manchester, 11am - Mystery Writing and You: Crime on the Road

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), A. Lee Martinez, Lillian Stewart Carl, Carole Nelson Douglas, Bill Crider

How does one create a crime? What is Noir? What era or genre is best for writing a mystery? Our experienced panelists give their advice on how to take a mystery on the road, and how to create a whodunit for the ages.

Churchill, 1pm - Young at Heart: Writing Young Adult Fiction

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), T. M. Hunter

Young Adult stories are reaching larger audiences than ever before. Twilight and Harry Potter, and an Unfortunate Series of Events...but how does one write in this genre? Our esteemed panelists explore the possibilities.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 4pm – Gloria Oliver, Melanie Fletcher

Warwick, 6pm - Science versus Fantasy: Are Nano-fireballs in the future?

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Nina Romberg, Melanie Fletcher, Mark Finn

With the advent of nano-technology and miniaturization of computers, science “fiction” is rapidly becoming mundane truth. Where is the role of magic in all of this – or can magic simply be science that is unexplained? Our panelists examine the dividing line which may or may not exist any more.

Manchester, 9pm - Pornography vs. Erotica

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), Lee Martindale, Brad Sinor

Nine different panels, and nothing has been solved. Last year, it actually did get discussed to some extent, so perhaps this year it will be solved forever? Only time will tell...Adults only!

Sunday:

Warwick, 11am - Lascannons of Doom: Creating Weapons in Sci-fi/Fantasy

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Glenn Sixbury, Melanie Fletcher, Frances May, Kerry Tolan

Movies create more and more unbelievable weapons due to comic books and bad science. These Weapons of Mass Destruction™ tend to raise eyebrows and ruin more novels than any other literary device. Our experts examine unbelievable weapons that make people's eyes glaze...and how to avoid this.

Warwick, 1pm - Alternate History and You: Trends in Alternate Universes

Panelists: Linda Donahue (M), Melanie Fletcher

Popularized by Harry Turtledove, Eric Flint and many others, the alternate history genre has risen to new heights. Our experts discuss ways and means for writing it...and who is on the cutting edge in 2010.

Brad Foster

Friday:

Saturday:

Churchill, 11am - Fandom Pictionary

Panelists: Teddy Harvia, Brad Foster

Play Pictionary or just watch as two of our artists compete. Come and see Teddy Harvia face off against Brad Foster! Pictionary has never been this much fun!

Churchill, 2pm - The mARTian Collaboration

Panelists: Teddy Harvia, Brad Foster

They say if you ask a committee to design a horse, you'll get a camel. Come see what happens when we team up these two artists and ask them to design a Martian.

Sunday:

Canterbury, 11am - Fan Art 101

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), Vincent Villafranca, R. Cat Conrad, Brad Foster

Our panelists answer the ever-present question of "What is Fan Art?". When does it crossover to a career? Possibly the answer to "Why is Fan Art?" as well, but that might take more time than they have.

Chris Fulbright

Friday:

Saturday:

Manchester, 5pm - Anti-Heros and You: Darkness Personified

Panelists: Brad Sinor (M), T.M. Hunter, Gloria Oliver, K. Hutson Price, Chris Fulbright, Richard Weber

Yes, it's easy to have the hero with dashing looks, a glint of sunlight off his teeth and a gleaming car to drive in. But what about the flip side? The dark, gloomy and gritty hero? Our experts give advice in creating believable anti-heros...and why you should use them.

Sunday:

Mary Gearhart-Gray

Friday:

Saturday:

Canterbury, 4pm - Buzz Blaster Play Reading

Panelists: David Gray, Mary Gearhart-Gray, assorted others.

A 1950's radio show with a twist. Audience participation is solicited. No prior acting experience is necessary to have a great time!

Sunday:

David L. Gray

Friday:

Canterbury, 5pm – Planets are for Sissies!

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Paul Abell, David Gray, Scott Padget

The solar system is a big place, why limit ourselves to living on planets? Our panelists consider other alternatives. Hosted by the National Space Society of North Texas.

Saturday:

Canterbury, 4pm - Buzz Blaster Play Reading

Panelists: David Gray, Mary Gearhart-Gray, assorted others.

A 1950's radio show with a twist. Audience participation is solicited. No prior acting experience is necessary to have a great time!

Sunday:

Warwick, 10am - Lucifer's Hammer: Asteroid collisions in Literature

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Jack McDevitt, Paul Abell, David Gray

Several fantastic novels have been written about near-earth object collisions and the results that happen. From the original "Lucifer's Hammer" to our Guest of Honor's "Moonfall", the Earth is surprisingly vulnerable to death from outer space. Our guests talk about the science behind these events, and how to write them.

Manchester, 2pm - Interstellar Archeology: The Debunking

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Mel White, Rie Sheridan Rose, Teddy Harvia, David Gray

The second of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin. Our experts tell us how wrong the previous esteemed panelists were!

Teddy Harvia

Friday:

Saturday:

Churchill, 11am - Fandom Pictionary

Panelists: Teddy Harvia, Brad Foster

Play Pictionary or just watch as two of our artists compete. Come and see Teddy Harvia face off against Brad Foster! Pictionary has never been this much fun!

Churchill, 2pm - The mARTian Collaboration

Panelists: Teddy Harvia, Brad Foster

They say if you ask a committee to design a horse, you'll get a camel. Come see what happens when we team up these two artists and ask them to design a Martian.

Churchill, 3pm - "How to Draw..."

[Young Adult]

Teddy Harvia gives quick lessons on how to draw basic objects – for youngsters!

Sunday:

Manchester, 2pm - Interstellar Archeology: The Debunking

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Mel White, Rie Sheridan Rose, Teddy Harvia, David Gray

The second of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin. Our experts tell us how wrong the previous esteemed panelists were!

Manchester, 3pm - Publishing Art and the Scams to Avoid.

Panelists: Teddy Harvia (M), Robert Stikmanz, Joy Marie Ledet

Getting art published is tricky in this day and age. Some websites host for free...and then your artwork belongs to them if they host it. Our experts warn you of the scams that exist out there, and how to publish your art without losing the rights to it.

Angeline Hawkes

Friday:

Saturday:

Churchill, 12pm - Choose Your Own Way: Classes to Take In School If You Want To Be A Writer.

[Young Adult]

Panelists: Angeline Hawkes(M), Michelle Muenzler

For the younger members of our convention who are about to go into High School and College – this panel will help guide you to the classes you need if you want to learn how to write. Make sure to bring pen and paper, this should be a good one!

Manchester, 1pm - Heroic Destinies

Panelists: Darlene Bolesny (M), Rhonda Eudaly, C. Dean Andersson, Angeline Hawkes, Paul Black
A hero always has a destiny, or so it is written. But perhaps a destiny denied can be more interesting than a destiny fulfilled...our panelists talk about Destiny in literature, and how to make it not so obvious.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 3pm – Rachel Caine, Brad Sinor, Sue Sinor, Angeline Hawkes

Sunday:

Kevin Hosey

Friday:

Saturday:

Sunday:

Manchester, 11am - Anthologies and You: They're Coming!

Panelists: Teresa Patterson(M), Chris Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly, Kevin Hosey

Last year, this humble programming officer discovered that creating Anthologies and Collections was not as easy as he thought it was...and the reasons for doing so was nothing like he thought, either! Come discover the true reasons for banding together, as true experts illumine the trials and tribulations they faced.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 12pm – Jaye Wells, Kerry M. Tolan, Kevin Hosey

T.M. Hunter

Friday:

Manchester, 4pm - The Novel vs. The Short Story

Panelists: Patrice Sarath (M), Kerry Tolan, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Paul Black

If you are a promising writer, you won't want to miss this: our panelists discuss the differences between novels and short stories – and what to choose for a particular story idea.

Saturday:

Warwick, 10 am - Get Ready, Get Set...: How to Start a Story

Panelists: P.N. Elrod (M), Michelle Muenzler, T.M. Hunter, Rachel Caine, Sue Sinor, Jack McDevitt

The best stories usually have one thing in common – a catchy beginning. If you can't capture the attention of a reader who is skimming through the bookstore, you'll never sell books. Our experts relate their tales, and how you can get that story out...and grab attention in the process.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 11am – T. M. Hunter, Stephen Patrick, Glenn Sixbury, Rie Sheridan Rose

Canterbury, 12pm - Tropes and How to Avoid Them.

Panelists: Bill Fawcett (M), Patrice Sarath, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Lou Antonelli

Ever groan while reading a story? Does seeing a ghost telling the hero he has a quest make you retch? The ever-present cliché will pop up when you least expect it, and ruin all the dramatic potential your story has. Our experts go over some popular ones...and show you how to avoid them.

Churchill, 1pm - Young at Heart: Writing Young Adult Fiction

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), T. M. Hunter

Young Adult stories are reaching larger audiences than ever before. Twilight and Harry Potter, and an Unfortunate Series of Events...but how does one write in this genre? Our esteemed panelists explore the possibilities.

Manchester, 5pm - Anti-Heros and You: Darkness Personified

Panelists: Brad Sinor (M), T.M. Hunter, Gloria Oliver, K. Hutson Price, Chris Fulbright, Richard Weber

Yes, it's easy to have the hero with dashing looks, a glint of sunlight off his teeth and a gleaming car to drive in. But what about the flip side? The dark, gloomy and gritty hero? Our experts give advice in creating believable anti-heros...and why you should use them.

Sunday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 2pm – T.M. Hunter, Glenn Sixbury

Thomas W. Knowles

Friday:

Canterbury, 4pm - The Modern Western and You: Desperados in the 21st Century

Panelists: Scott Cupp (M), Thomas Knowles, Mel White

Writing a Western in the modern world is a tricky proposition. In this panel our esteemed experts discuss the world of the Western and how to write it in a more modern setting...or how to write about old-style Westerns in this modern world!

Saturday:

Manchester, 10am - Self-Help for Selling Yourself

Panelists: Bill Fawcett (M), Lillian Stewart Carl, Thomas Knowles

In this modern world, there are many mediums for selling your work, whether via the Internet or printed media. Our editors and publishers give you advice on where to go and what they look for when they read your work.

Manchester, 4pm - The Urban Fantastic, Take 2

Panelists: Nina Romberg (M), Crystalwizard, P.N. Elrod, Thomas Knowles, Carole Nelson Douglas
Here's our second look at this popular genre. Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Sunday:

Churchill, 12pm - Publishing 101: Publishing Short Stories

Panelists: Thomas Knowles(M), Crystalwizard, Ciara Gold, Sue Sinor

Putting together a gem is always a pleasure, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your story read, who to go to, and what to say.

Canterbury, 3pm - Indie Publishing 101

Panelists: Ciara Gold (M), Crystalwizard, Thomas Knowles, Paul Black

Getting that novel out there is hard enough if you try to butt heads with the big boys. Are independent publishers the answer? Our panelists try to answer this...and who to talk to if you want to explore options.

William Ledbetter

Friday:

Canterbury, 5pm – Planets are for Sissies!

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Paul Abell, David Gray, Scott Padget

The solar system is a big place, why limit ourselves to living on planets? Our panelists consider other alternatives. Hosted by the National Space Society of North Texas.

Saturday:

Canterbury, 10 am – Exploring and Colonizing Mars

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Paul Abell, and members of the Dallas Mars Society (Kurt Chankaya, Derek Andreas, April Andreas)

It won't be this decade, or probably even the next, but it will happen. We will colonize Mars. What will it be like? What challenges will the new Martians face? Our panelists will discuss our next home in space. Hosted by the National Space Society of North Texas and the Dallas Mars Society.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 6pm – William Ledbetter, Adrian Simmons

Sunday:

Warwick, 10am - Lucifer's Hammer: Asteroid collisions in Literature

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Jack McDevitt, Paul Abell, David Gray

Several fantastic novels have been written about near-earth object collisions and the results that happen. From the original "Lucifer's Hammer" to our Guest of Honor's "Moonfall", the Earth is surprisingly vulnerable to death from outer space. Our guests talk about the science behind these events, and how to write them.

Canterbury, 12pm - The Internet and You - Dealing with the Internet

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Glenn Sixbury, Selina Rosen, Shanna Swendson

The ever-present Internet looms above us all. However, it also is the easiest way to get your story out into the public...but what is the best way? Web boards, chat groups, eZines, these will all be discussed by our experts in web technology.

Manchester, 1pm - Anti-gravity and You: Trends in Science Fiction

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Stephen Patrick, John Steakley

Not all Science Fiction happens in space, you know. Our experts discuss Science Fiction trends on planetary surfaces, various approaches to technology advances, and pitfalls to avoid creating BFG9000-like weapons.

Manchester, 2pm - Interstellar Archeology: The Debunking

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Mel White, Rie Sheridan Rose, Teddy Harvia, David Gray

The second of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin. Our experts tell us how wrong the previous esteemed panelists were!

Joy Marie Ledet

Friday:

Manchester, 6pm - The Aspiring Artists Panel

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), Vincent Villafranca, R. Cat Conrad, Joy Marie Ledet

So you want to be an artist? There are twists and turns in every path to a successful art career, and our panelists can give you directions on how to get there.

Saturday:

Sunday:

Manchester, 3pm - Publishing Art and the Scams to Avoid.

Panelists: Teddy Harvia (M), Robert Stikmanz, Joy Marie Ledet

Getting art published is tricky in this day and age. Some websites host for free...and then your artwork belongs to them if they host it. Our experts warn you of the scams that exist out there, and how to publish your art without losing the rights to it.

Julia Mandala

Friday:

Manchester, 5pm - Interstellar Archaeology: Initial Findings

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Crystalwizard, Scott Cupp, Michael Finn, Julia Mandala

The first of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin and our esteemed panelists in turn tell us what the artifacts are. Light hearted fun, and bring ear plugs!

Saturday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 10am – Julia Mandala, K. Hutson Price

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 5pm – Julia Mandala, Linda L. Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly, Dusty Rainbolt

Manchester, 6pm - The Four Redheads: Apocalypse Now!

Panelists: Julia Mandala, Linda L. Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly and Dusty Rainbolt

The Four Redheads get together IN CHARACTER to promote their latest and greatest. Just to tease: "They have a stunning realization: once the Apocalypse is finished, there'll be no need for horsemen and they'll be free of the jobs they loathe. Now highly motivated, and armed with the prophecies of Antoinette of Arc (Joan's smarter sister, who never told anyone she had visions of the Apocalypse), the Redheads carry out their secret plan to bring on the End Times. And, since no one takes them seriously, they just might succeed!"

Sunday:

Manchester, 12pm - Supernatural Romance and You (in the 21st Century!)

Panelists: Julia Mandala (M), Rachel Caine, Rie Sheridan Rose

This is one of the hottest genres around...sometimes literally! Come hear our experts regale you with juicy tales of Vampires, Werewolves and Witches, Oh My!

Canterbury, 2pm - Self-editing Err0rs

Panelists: Lou Antonelli (M), Richard Weber, Julia Mandala

Last year our panelists discussed ways of catching those pesky errors. Now they tell you how to do it again, but with corrective ink.

Lee Martindale

Friday:

Manchester, 5pm - Interstellar Archaeology: Initial Findings

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Crystalwizard, Scott Cupp, Michael Finn, Julia Mandala

The first of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin and our esteemed panelists in turn tell us what the artifacts are. Light hearted fun, and bring ear plugs!

Warwick, 6pm - The Aspiring Writers Panel

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Bill Fawcett, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt,

So you want to be a writer? There are twists and turns in every path to a successful writing career, and our panelists can give you directions on how to get there.

Saturday:

Canterbury, 11am - Reality Holes: Errors in Research

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Frances May, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt, Teresa Patterson

Our experts discuss research, and what is often forgotten in writing – that making things believable usually requires a basis in fact. Anyone can make up words, but only you could attach meanings to them.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 1pm – Lee Martindale, Lou Antonelli, Carole Nelson Douglas

Manchester, 9pm - Pornography vs. Erotica

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), Lee Martindale, Brad Sinor

Nine different panels, and nothing has been solved. Last year, it actually did get discussed to some extent, so perhaps this year it will be solved forever? Only time will tell...Adults only!

Sunday:

Warwick, 12pm - Writers to Keep An Eye On

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Elizabeth Moon, A. Lee Martinez, Aaron Allston

An annual discussion, our panelists have a lively discussion on who are the upwardly mobile in writing. Who has a good handle on writing? Who is a hack and won't stick around long? Expect opinions to fly hot and heavy – and no referees.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 1pm – Lee Martindale, Michelle Muenzler

Warwick, 2pm - The Case of the Mixed-up Genre

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), A. Lee Martinez, Crystalwizard, Paul Black

With so many genres of writing, it is easy to get locked into one and only one. But there are many cases where breaking into a new style can help break you out of that rut – and change that novel forever! Our panelists tell you how, why, and what works best.

A. Lee Martinez

Friday:

Warwick, 5pm - Fantastic Realms: Trends in Fantasy

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Elizabeth Moon, Teresa Patterson, A. Lee Martinez

From things that fly and breathe fire to the denizens of the deep mines, fantasy has always been the place for high adventure. Our experts discuss where fantasy is today, and where it will be in the future.

Saturday:

Manchester, 11am - Mystery Writing and You: Crime on the Road

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), A. Lee Martinez, Lillian Stewart Carl, Carole Nelson Douglas, Bill Crider

How does one create a crime? What is Noir? What era or genre is best for writing a mystery? Our experienced panelists give their advice on how to take a mystery on the road, and how to create a whodunit for the ages.

Manchester, 12pm - What's so Funny?: Trends in Humor

Panelists: Shanna Swendson (M), A. Lee Martinez, Jaye Wells, Selina Rosen

In the past couple of years, several comedic greats have fallen – from Douglas Adams to Robert Aspin. Even Terry Pratchett is having to slow down. Who is stepping up to the plate? Our experts discuss authors and novels.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 4pm – Shanna Swendson, A. Lee Martinez

Sunday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 10am – A. Lee Martinez, Shanna Swendson

Warwick, 12pm - Writers to Keep An Eye On

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Elizabeth Moon, A. Lee Martinez, Aaron Allston

An annual discussion, our panelists have a lively debate on who are the upwardly mobile in writing. Who has a good handle on writing? Who is a hack and won't stick around long? Expect opinions to fly hot and heavy – and no referees.

Warwick, 2pm - The Case of the Mixed-up Genre

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), A. Lee Martinez, Crystalwizard, Paul Black

With so many genres of writing, it is easy to get locked into one and only one. But there are many cases where breaking into a new style can help break you out of that rut – and change that novel forever! Our panelists tell you how, why, and what works best.

Frances May

Friday:

Saturday:

Warwick, 10 am - Get Ready, Get Set...: How to Start a Story

Panelists: P.N. Elrod (M), Michelle Muenzler, T.M. Hunter, Rachel Caine, Sue Sinor, Jack McDevitt

The best stories usually have one thing in common – a catchy beginning. If you can't capture the attention of a reader who is skimming through the bookstore, you'll never sell books. Our experts relate their tales, and how you can get that story out...and grab attention in the process.

Canterbury, 11am - Reality Holes: Errors in Research

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Frances May, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt, Teresa Patterson

Our experts discuss research, and what is often forgotten in writing – that making things believable usually requires a basis in fact. Anyone can make up words, but only you could attach meanings to them.

Warwick, 2pm - The History of Women Warriors in Fantasy

Panelists: Frances May

Hosted by Frances May, this program was first given at the Sirens Conference in October, 2009.

Should be an interesting event, as well as educational – and give all the inspiration for a lady hero a writer could want!

Sunday:

Warwick, 11am - Lascannons of Doom: Creating Weapons in Sci-fi/Fantasy

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Glenn Sixbury, Melanie Fletcher, Frances May, Kerry Tolan

Movies create more and more unbelievable weapons due to comic books and bad science. These Weapons of Mass Destruction™ tend to raise eyebrows and ruin more novels than any other literary device. Our experts examine unbelievable weapons that make people's eyes glaze...and how to avoid this.

Churchill, 2pm - Mythology and You: Researching Asgard

Panelists: Teresa Patterson (M), Frances May, Linda Donahue

Even the tried and true mythological traditions have their uses in creating stories. However, it can be tricky finding the truth behind the myth at times. Our experts discuss where to look when researching mythology, and how to avoid that pesky Loki.

Michelle Muenzler

Friday:

Saturday:

Warwick, 10 am - Get Ready, Get Set...: How to Start a Story

Panelists: P.N. Elrod (M), Michelle Muenzler, T.M. Hunter, Rachel Caine, Sue Sinor, Jack McDevitt

The best stories usually have one thing in common – a catchy beginning. If you can't capture the attention of a reader who is skimming through the bookstore, you'll never sell books. Our experts relate their tales, and how you can get that story out...and grab attention in the process.

Churchill, 12pm - Choose Your Own Way: Classes to Take In School If You Want To Be A Writer. [Young Adult]

Panelists: Angeline Hawkes(M), Michelle Muenzler

For the younger members of our convention who are about to go into High School and College – this panel will help guide you to the classes you need if you want to learn how to write. Make sure to bring pen and paper, this should be a good one!

Warwick, 8pm - Your Celestial Starburst 2010

Panelists: Rie Sheridan Rose, Gloria Oliver, Michelle Muenzler, and Teresa Patterson

Join us again as we crown our second Your Celestial Starburst. Come show off your wonderful Costumes and win the Crown. Dress up as your favorite character, or create your own masterpiece! This is a pageant in the out of this world style as only ConDFW can do it. The winner will receive the crown, the title and the coveted spot in the center of next years program.

Sunday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 1pm – Lee Martindale, Michelle Muenzler

Gloria Oliver

Friday:

Saturday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 4pm – Gloria Oliver, Melanie Fletcher

Manchester, 5pm - Anti-Heros and You: Darkness Personified

Panelists: Brad Sinor (M), T.M. Hunter, Gloria Oliver, K. Hutson Price, Chris Fulbright, Richard Weber

Yes, it's easy to have the hero with dashing looks, a glint of sunlight off his teeth and a gleaming car to drive in. But what about the flip side? The dark, gloomy and gritty hero? Our experts give advice in creating believable anti-heros...and why you should use them.

Warwick, 8pm - Your Celestial Starburst 2010

Panelists: Rie Sheridan Rose, Gloria Oliver, Michelle Muenzler, and Teresa Patterson

Join us again as we crown our second Your Celestial Starburst. Come show off your wonderful Costumes and win the Crown. Dress up as your favorite character, or create your own masterpiece! This is a pageant in the out of this world style as only ConDFW can do it. The winner will receive the crown, the title and the coveted spot in the center of next years program.

Sunday:

Scott R. Padget

Friday:

Canterbury, 5pm – Planets are for Sissies!

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Paul Abell, David Gray, Scott Padget

The solar system is a big place, why limit ourselves to living on planets? Our panelists consider other alternatives. Hosted by the National Space Society of North Texas.

Saturday:

Sunday:

Stephen Patrick

Friday:

Saturday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 12pm – Teresa Patterson, Stephen Patrick

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 11am – T. M. Hunter, Stephen Patrick, Glenn Sixbury, Rie Sheridan Rose

Sunday:

Manchester, 1pm - Anti-gravity and You: Trends in Science Fiction

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Stephen Patrick, John Steakley

Not all Science Fiction happens in space, you know. Our experts discuss Science Fiction trends on planetary surfaces, various approaches to technology advances, and pitfalls to avoid creating BFG9000-like weapons.

Teresa Patterson

Friday:

Warwick, 5pm - Fantastic Realms: Trends in Fantasy

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Elizabeth Moon, Teresa Patterson, A. Lee Martinez

From things that fly and breathe fire to the denizens of the deep mines, fantasy has always been the place for high adventure. Our experts discuss where fantasy is today, and where it will be in the future.

Saturday:

Canterbury, 11am - Reality Holes: Errors in Research

Panelists: Lee Martindale (M), Frances May, Elizabeth Moon, Jack McDevitt, Teresa Patterson

Our experts discuss research, and what is often forgotten in writing – that making things believable usually requires a basis in fact. Anyone can make up words, but only you could attach meanings to them.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 12pm – Teresa Patterson, Stephen Patrick

Churchill, 6pm - What the Filk? – Filk 101

Panelists: Fax Paladin (M), Teresa Patterson, Rie Sheridan Rose

Ever wonder what “Filk” is? Tired of the same old music? Yeah, we thought so. Our experts will instruct you in the all the basics of filking, with none of the dirtiness. Or at least not much.

Warwick, 8pm - Your Celestial Starburst 2010

Panelists: Rie Sheridan Rose, Gloria Oliver, Michelle Muenzler, and Teresa Patterson

Join us again as we crown our second Your Celestial Starburst. Come show off your wonderful Costumes and win the Crown. Dress up as your favorite character, or create your own masterpiece! This is a pageant in the out of this world style as only ConDFW can do it. The winner will receive the crown, the title and the coveted spot in the center of next years program.

Sunday:

Manchester, 11am - Anthologies and You: They're Coming!

Panelists: Teresa Patterson(M), Chris Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly, Kevin Hosey

Last year, this humble programming officer discovered that creating Anthologies and Collections was not as easy as he thought it was...and the reasons for doing so was nothing like he thought, either! Come discover the true reasons for banding together, as true experts illumine the trials and tribulations they faced.

Churchill, 2pm - Mythology and You: Researching Asgard

Panelists: Teresa Patterson (M), Frances May, Linda Donahue

Even the tried and true mythological traditions have their uses in creating stories. However, it can be tricky finding the truth behind the myth at times. Our experts discuss where to look when researching mythology, and how to avoid that pesky Loki.

K. Hutson Price

Friday:

Saturday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 10am – Julia Mandala, K. Hutson Price

Manchester, 5pm - Anti-Heros and You: Darkness Personified

Panelists: Brad Sinor (M), T.M. Hunter, Gloria Oliver, K. Hutson Price, Chris Fulbright, Richard Weber

Yes, it's easy to have the hero with dashing looks, a glint of sunlight off his teeth and a gleaming car to drive in. But what about the flip side? The dark, gloomy and gritty hero? Our experts give advice in creating believable anti-heros...and why you should use them.

Sunday:

Dusty Rainbolt

Friday:

Saturday:

Canterbury, 3pm - E.T. Phone Home: Aliens and You

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Chris Donahue, Bill Crider, Dusty Rainbolt, Kerry Tolan

A particular pitfall of the Science Fiction genre is the humanoid alien that thinks and talks like humans. How does one make an alien believable? What kind of society would a non-humanoid alien have, if any? Our panelists discuss these topics and more.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 5pm – Julia Mandala, Linda L. Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly, Dusty Rainbolt

Manchester, 6pm - The Four Redheads: Apocalypse Now!

Panelists: Julia Mandala, Linda L. Donahue, Rhonda Eudaly and Dusty Rainbolt

The Four Redheads get together IN CHARACTER to promote their latest and greatest. Just to tease: “They have a stunning realization: once the Apocalypse is finished, there'll be no need for horsemen and they'll be free of the jobs they loathe. Now highly motivated, and armed with the prophecies of Antoinette of Arc (Joan's smarter sister, who never told anyone she had visions of the Apocalypse), the Redheads carry out their secret plan to bring on the End Times. And, since no one takes them seriously, they just might succeed!”

Sunday:

Nina Romberg

Friday:

Saturday:

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 12pm – Darlene Bolesny, C. Dean Andersson, Lillian Stewart Carl, Nina Romberg

Manchester, 4pm - The Urban Fantastic, Take 2

Panelists: Nina Romberg (M), Crystalwizard, P.N. Elrod, Thomas Knowles, Carole Nelson Douglas
Here's our second look at this popular genre. Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Warwick, 6pm - Science versus Fantasy: Are Nano-fireballs in the future?

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Nina Romberg, Melanie Fletcher, Mark Finn

With the advent of nano-technology and miniaturization of computers, science “fiction” is rapidly becoming mundane truth. Where is the role of magic in all of this – or can magic simply be science that is unexplained? Our panelists examine the dividing line which may or may not exist any more.

Sunday:

Rie Sheridan Rose

Friday:

Saturday:

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 11am – T. M. Hunter, Stephen Patrick, Glenn Sixbury, Rie Sheridan Rose

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 2pm – Rhonda Eudaly, Rie Sheridan Rose

Churchill, 6pm - What the Filk? – Filk 101

Panelists: Fax Paladin (M), Teresa Patterson, Rie Sheridan Rose

Ever wonder what “Filk” is? Tired of the same old music? Yeah, we thought so. Our experts will instruct you in the all the basics of filking, with none of the dirtiness. Or at least not much.

Warwick, 8pm - Your Celestial Starburst 2010

Panelists: Rie Sheridan Rose, Gloria Oliver, Michelle Muenzler, and Teresa Patterson

Join us again as we crown our second Your Celestial Starburst. Come show off your wonderful Costumes and win the Crown. Dress up as your favorite character, or create your own masterpiece! This is a pageant in the out of this world style as only ConDFW can do it. The winner will receive the crown, the title and the coveted spot in the center of next years program.

Sunday:

Manchester, 12pm - Supernatural Romance and You (in the 21st Century!)

Panelists: Julia Mandala (M), Rachel Caine, Rie Sheridan Rose

This is one of the hottest genres around...sometimes literally! Come hear our experts regale you with juicy tales of Vampires, Werewolves and Witches, Oh My!

Selina Rosen

Friday:

Warwick, 9pm - Talking During the Movies! – Friday Night Double Feature (Avatar Edition!)

Panelists: Michael Finn, Selina Rosen, and others!

Two schlock masterpieces receive a thorough MST3K'ing by con guests and staff.

Saturday:

Manchester, 12pm - What's so Funny?: Trends in Humor

Panelists: Shanna Swendson (M), A. Lee Martinez, Jaye Wells, Selina Rosen

In the past couple of years, several comedic greats have fallen – from Douglas Adams to Robert Aspin. Even Terry Pratchett is having to slow down. Who is stepping up to the plate? Our experts discuss authors and novels.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 3pm – Ciara Gold, Selina Rosen

Sunday:

Churchill, 11am - Escape from the Slush Pile

Panelists: Lou Antonelli(M), Ciara Gold, Michael Finn, Selina Rosen

As the number of hopeful writers increase, the number of submissions increase. Piles upon piles of stories overwhelm every publisher and editor, and they have to make decisions on what makes it...and what is tossed in the slush pile. Our esteemed panelists discuss how to avoid being buried in the pile, and the mistakes to look out for.

Canterbury, 12pm - The Internet and You - Dealing with the Internet

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Glenn Sixbury, Selina Rosen, Shanna Swendson

The ever-present Internet looms above us all. However, it also is the easiest way to get your story out into the public...but what is the best way? Web boards, chat groups, eZines, these will all be discussed by our experts in web technology.

Churchill, 1pm - Publishing 201: Publishing Novels

Panelists: Lou Antonelli (M), Ciara Gold, Richard Weber, Selina Rosen, Jack McDevitt

Putting together a novel is an exhausting business, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your novel read, who to go to, and what to say. And watch out for rogue contracts!

Manchester, 2pm - Interstellar Archeology: The Debunking

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Mel White, Rie Sheridan Rose, Teddy Harvia, David Gray

The second of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin. Our experts tell us how wrong the previous esteemed panelists were!

Patrice Sarath

Friday:

Manchester, 4pm - The Novel vs. The Short Story

Panelists: Patrice Sarath (M), Kerry Tolan, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Paul Black

If you are a promising writer, you won't want to miss this: our panelists discuss the differences between novels and short stories – and what to choose for a particular story idea.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 5pm – Patrice Sarath, Melanie Fletcher

Saturday:

Canterbury, 12pm - Tropes and How to Avoid Them.

Panelists: Bill Fawcett (M), Patrice Sarath, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Lou Antonelli

Ever groan while reading a story? Does seeing a ghost telling the hero he has a quest make you retch? The ever-present cliché will pop up when you least expect it, and ruin all the dramatic potential your story has. Our experts go over some popular ones...and show you how to avoid them.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 5pm – Patrice Sarath

Sunday:

Adrian Simmons

Friday:

Canterbury, 6pm - How I Learned to Love the Internet: Media and Writing

Panelists: Michael Finn (M), Kerry Tolan, Adrian Simmons, Ciara Gold, Shanna Swendson

It seems nowadays that any book can be turned into a movie. In turn, many a hopeful writer just dream of having their 10 minutes of fame on the internet...and having that propel them into stardom. Our experts tell of how this is done, why it is done, and where it should be done...and just maybe IF it should be done.

Saturday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 6pm – William Ledbetter, Adrian Simmons

Sunday:

Brad Sinor

Friday:

Saturday:

Canterbury, 1pm - The Urban Fantastic

Panelists: Shanna Swendson (M), Brad Sinor, Jaye Wells, Rachel Caine

Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 3pm – Rachel Caine, Brad Sinor, Sue Sinor, Angeline Hawkes

Manchester, 5pm - Anti-Heros and You: Darkness Personified

Panelists: Brad Sinor (M), T.M. Hunter, Gloria Oliver, K. Hutson Price, Chris Fulbright, Richard Weber

Yes, it's easy to have the hero with dashing looks, a glint of sunlight off his teeth and a gleaming car to drive in. But what about the flip side? The dark, gloomy and gritty hero? Our experts give advice in creating believable anti-heros...and why you should use them.

Manchester, 9pm - Pornography vs. Erotica

Panelists: Melanie Fletcher (M), Lee Martindale, Brad Sinor

Nine different panels, and nothing has been solved. Last year, it actually did get discussed to some extent, so perhaps this year it will be solved forever? Only time will tell...Adults only!

Sunday:

Sue Sinor

Friday:

Saturday:

Warwick, 10 am - Get Ready, Get Set...: How to Start a Story

Panelists: P.N. Elrod (M), Michelle Muenzler, T.M. Hunter, Rachel Caine, Sue Sinor, Jack McDevitt

The best stories usually have one thing in common – a catchy beginning. If you can't capture the attention of a reader who is skimming through the bookstore, you'll never sell books. Our experts relate their tales, and how you can get that story out...and grab attention in the process.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 1pm – P.N. Elrod, Sue Sinor

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 3pm – Rachel Caine, Brad Sinor, Sue Sinor, Angeline Hawkes

Sunday:

Churchill, 12pm - Publishing 101: Publishing Short Stories

Panelists: Thomas Knowles(M), Crystalwizard, Ciara Gold, Sue Sinor

Putting together a gem is always a pleasure, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your story read, who to go to, and what to say.

Amy Sisson

Friday:

Saturday:

Warwick, 4pm - World-Building 101: Weather Control

Panelists: Amy Sisson (M), Lillian Stewart Carl, Elizabeth Moon, Darlene Bolesny, Rachel Caine

It was a dark and stormy night...some of the best books (and worst!) use that line to open up the reader's mind into a new and fascinating world. Our panelists examine the use of weather in stories, and how to use them to help or hurt the characters.

Sunday:

Glenn Sixbury

Friday:

Saturday:

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 11am – T. M. Hunter, Stephen Patrick, Glenn Sixbury, Rie Sheridan Rose

Sunday:

Warwick, 11am - Lascannons of Doom: Creating Weapons in Sci-fi/Fantasy

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Glenn Sixbury, Melanie Fletcher, Frances May, Kerry Tolan

Movies create more and more unbelievable weapons due to comic books and bad science. These Weapons of Mass Destruction™ tend to raise eyebrows and ruin more novels than any other literary device. Our experts examine unbelievable weapons that make people's eyes glaze...and how to avoid this.

Canterbury, 12pm - The Internet and You - Dealing with the Internet

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Glenn Sixbury, Selina Rosen, Shanna Swendson

The ever-present Internet looms above us all. However, it also is the easiest way to get your story out into the public...but what is the best way? Web boards, chat groups, eZines, these will all be discussed by our experts in web technology.

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 2pm – T.M. Hunter, Glenn Sixbury

John Steakley

Friday:

Saturday:

Sunday:

Manchester, 1pm - Anti-gravity and You: Trends in Science Fiction

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Stephen Patrick, John Steakley

Not all Science Fiction happens in space, you know. Our experts discuss Science Fiction trends on planetary surfaces, various approaches to technology advances, and pitfalls to avoid creating BFG9000-like weapons.

Robert Stikmanz

Friday:

Saturday:

Churchill, 10am - Art and Urban Fantasy: How to Sell a Book

Panelists: David Lee Anderson (M), David Cherry, Robert Stikmanz

The nightmare of any publisher is to get a piece of art that sells books. What the poor artist doesn't know about the novel may just doom a project before it starts... This year our panelists talk about some of the typical traps artists face in doing art for Urban Fantasy projects.

Sunday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 12pm – Robert Stikmanz, Paul Black

Manchester, 3pm - Publishing Art and the Scams to Avoid.

Panelists: Teddy Harvia (M), Robert Stikmanz, Joy Marie Ledet

Getting art published is tricky in this day and age. Some websites host for free...and then your artwork belongs to them if they host it. Our experts warn you of the scams that exist out there, and how to publish your art without losing the rights to it.

Shanna Swendson

Friday:

Canterbury, 6pm - How I Learned to Love the Internet: Media and Writing

Panelists: Michael Finn (M), Kerry Tolan, Adrian Simmons, Ciara Gold, Shanna Swendson

It seems nowadays that any book can be turned into a movie. In turn, many a hopeful writer just dream of having their 10 minutes of fame on the internet...and having that propel them into stardom. Our experts tell of how this is done, why it is done, and where it should be done...and just maybe IF it should be done.

Saturday:

Manchester, 12pm - What's so Funny?: Trends in Humor

Panelists: Shanna Swendson (M), A. Lee Martinez, Jaye Wells, Selina Rosen

In the past couple of years, several comedic greats have fallen – from Douglas Adams to Robert Aspin. Even Terry Pratchett is having to slow down. Who is stepping up to the plate? Our experts discuss authors and novels.

Canterbury, 1pm - The Urban Fantastic

Panelists: Shanna Swendson (M), Brad Sinor, Jaye Wells, Rachel Caine

Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 4pm – Shanna Swendson, A. Lee Martinez

Sunday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 10am – A. Lee Martinez, Shanna Swendson

Canterbury, 12pm - The Internet and You - Dealing with the Internet

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Glenn Sixbury, Selina Rosen, Shanna Swendson

The ever-present Internet looms above us all. However, it also is the easiest way to get your story out into the public...but what is the best way? Web boards, chat groups, eZines, these will all be discussed by our experts in web technology.

Kerry Tolan

Friday:

Manchester, 4pm - The Novel vs. The Short Story

Panelists: Patrice Sarath (M), Kerry Tolan, T.M. Hunter, Linda Donahue, Paul Black

If you are a promising writer, you won't want to miss this: our panelists discuss the differences between novels and short stories – and what to choose for a particular story idea.

Canterbury, 6pm - How I Learned to Love the Internet: Media and Writing

Panelists: Michael Finn (M), Kerry Tolan, Adrian Simmons, Ciara Gold, Shanna Swendson

It seems nowadays that any book can be turned into a movie. In turn, many a hopeful writer just dream of having their 10 minutes of fame on the internet...and having that propel them into stardom. Our experts tell of how this is done, why it is done, and where it should be done...and just maybe IF it should be done.

Saturday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 11am – Aaron Allston, Kerry M. Tolan

Canterbury, 3pm - E.T. Phone Home: Aliens and You

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Chris Donahue, Bill Crider, Dusty Rainbolt, Kerry Tolan

A particular pitfall of the Science Fiction genre is the humanoid alien that thinks and talks like humans. How does one make an alien believable? What kind of society would a non-humanoid alien have, if any? Our panelists discuss these topics and more.

Sunday:

Warwick, 11am - Lascannons of Doom: Creating Weapons in Sci-fi/Fantasy

Panelists: Aaron Allston (M), Glenn Sixbury, Melanie Fletcher, Frances May, Kerry Tolan

Movies create more and more unbelievable weapons due to comic books and bad science. These Weapons of Mass Destruction™ tend to raise eyebrows and ruin more novels than any other literary device. Our experts examine unbelievable weapons that make people's eyes glaze...and how to avoid this.

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 12pm – Jaye Wells, Kerry M. Tolan, Kevin Hosey

Richard Weber

Friday:

Saturday:

Manchester, 5pm - Anti-Heros and You: Darkness Personified

Panelists: Brad Sinor (M), T.M. Hunter, Gloria Oliver, K. Hutson Price, Chris Fulbright, Richard Weber

Yes, it's easy to have the hero with dashing looks, a glint of sunlight off his teeth and a gleaming car to drive in. But what about the flip side? The dark, gloomy and gritty hero? Our experts give advice in creating believable anti-heros...and why you should use them.

Sunday:

Churchill, 1pm - Publishing 201: Publishing Novels

Panelists: Lou Antonelli (M), Ciara Gold, Richard Weber, Selina Rosen, Jack McDevitt

Putting together a novel is an exhausting business, but getting it out into the cold, cruel world is the next big step. Our experts talk about how to get your novel read, who to go to, and what to say. And watch out for rogue contracts!

Canterbury, 2pm - Self-editing Errors

Panelists: Lou Antonelli (M), Richard Weber, Julia Mandala

Last year our panelists discussed ways of catching those pesky errors. Now they tell you how to do it again, but with corrective ink.

Jaye Wells

Friday:

Saturday:

Manchester, 12pm - What's so Funny?: Trends in Humor

Panelists: Shanna Swendson (M), A. Lee Martinez, Jaye Wells, Selina Rosen

In the past couple of years, several comedic greats have fallen – from Douglas Adams to Robert Aspin. Even Terry Pratchett is having to slow down. Who is stepping up to the plate? Our experts discuss authors and novels.

Canterbury, 1pm - The Urban Fantastic

Panelists: Shanna Swendson (M), Brad Sinor, Jaye Wells, Rachel Caine

Take a slice of the 20th century, add magic, and stir gently. The resulting Urban Fantasy world is by far some of the most popular themes in novels and movies today. Our panelists talk about writing in this genre, and how you too can do magic. Well...perhaps not.

Sunday:

Reading - Surrey (2nd Floor), 11am – Crystalwizard, Jaye Wells

Autograph Session (in front of the Dealers' Room), 12pm – Jaye Wells, Kerry M. Tolan, Kevin Hosey

Mel White

Friday:

Canterbury, 4pm - The Modern Western and You: Desperados in the 21st Century

Panelists: Scott Cupp (M), Thomas Knowles, Mel White

Writing a Western in the modern world is a tricky proposition. In this panel our esteemed experts discuss the world of the Western and how to write it in a more modern setting...or how to write about old-style Westerns in this modern world!

Saturday:

Sunday:

Manchester, 2pm - Interstellar Archeology: The Debunking

Panelists: William Ledbetter (M), Mel White, Rie Sheridan Rose, Teddy Harvia, David Gray

The second of two panels where we inflict...er discover startling artifacts of OBVIOUS alien origin. Our experts tell us how wrong the previous esteemed panelists were!